

Croatian Language, its Status and Function through Time

In cooperation with The Embassy of the Republic of Croatia the Department of Cross-Cultural and Regional Studies is hosting a seminar to mark the introduction of Croatian as the 24th official language in the EU.

When and where: November 14, 10.00 – 17.00 at Faculty of Humanities, South Campus, Karen Blixens Vej 4, room 10.3.28 and Njalsgade 136, building 27, room 27.0.17

Programme

Karen Blixens Vej 4, room 10.3.28 (10.00 – 12.00)

10.00-10.15 Opening, Head of Department of Cross-Cultural and Regional Studies Ingolf Thuesen and Croatian Ambassador to Denmark, His Excellency Ladislav Pivčević

10.15-11.00 Roots of Croatian Mateo Žagar, University of Zagreb

11.00-11.15 Break

11.15-12.00 Language, Statehood, Culture: Croatian and the Quest for Identity, Aida Vidan, Harvard University

12.00-13.00 Lunch break

Njalsgade 136, building 27, room 27.0.17 (13.00 – 17.00)

13.00-13.45 Contemporary Croatian, Krešimir Mićanović, University of Zagreb

13.45-14.30 The Significance of the Illyrian Movement for Contemporary Croatian, Pontus Lindgren, Uppsala University

14.30-15.00 Break

15.00-15.45 Danish in the EU, Sabine Kirchmeier-Andersen, The Danish Language Council

15.45-16.30 Croatian in Bosnia & Hercegovina, Selma Gundersen, University of Copenhagen
Globalization and Croatian, Martin Madsen, University of Copenhagen

16.30-16.45 Closing remarks

After the seminar, from 17.00 to 19.00 there will be a reception followed by a concert with the Croatian pianist Berislav Arlavi